1. JACOB CONRAD

Jacob Conrad, a son of Bartlome and Babara (Ryff) Churet, was born in Canton Berne, Switzerland in 1705 and died in Pendleton County VA (WV) December 7, 1775. He married Frena Svena Lauk in Switzerland about 1740. Frena died in Pendleton County in 1774. (Another source identifies Jacob's wife as Susanna Leysi.) Virgil L. Conrad identifies Jacob's wife as Verena Lerch, who died in Bern, Switzerland Apr 19, 1749.

Jacob and his family arrived in Philadelphia with his brother Ulrich on the ship "Patience" in 1750.

The brothers settled on the South Branch of the Potomac River in Pendleton County Virginia, (now WV.) Jacob selected a tract of land containing an Indian clearing or "squaw patch", as such fields were known at the time.

Children of Jacob and Frena Svana (Lauck) Conrad.

Daniel Conrad, a son of Jacob Jr. and Hannah (Bogard) Conrad, was born in Pendleton County VA (WV) in April 1781 and died in Braxton County WV before 1853. He is probably the 65 year old Daniel listed in the Benjamin Conrad household in the 1850 Braxton County VA (WV) census. He married Margaret Shields April 14, 1806. Margaret, a daughter of Peter and Elizabeth (Singleton) Shields, was born about 1783 and died November 14, 1862.

In the 1850 Braxton County VA (WV) Census, several of Daniel's children are listed in the household of John B. and Mary (Mace) Conrad.

Daniel's will was published in "The Braxton Democrat" for December 5, 1905 and was reprinted in "The Hacker's Creek Jornal" Volume XVIII, Issue 3, 2000.

"Know all men by these presents that I, Daniel CONRAD, of Lewis County, and State of Virginia, being in my natural senses and in perfect mind. I will my soul and body to the hands of the Almighty God of Heavens, and I beg the Almighty God of Heavens for his mercies and to pardon me, grace my sins and iniquities and transgressions and of all my evil and unlawful and unrighteous deeds and sins, and if the Almighty God of Heavens will spare my life and let me always live, and will pardon me, and will spare my life and let me always live and will restore me to my natural health and strength and to the natural use of myself again, and will let me be restored to my natural health and strength and to the natural use of myself again, and will enable me to get those ores and coins and treasures and matters that are on my land, or on any of my land, or anywhere else, when the Almighty God is willing and pleases to let me find and get on ground and under ground, and will enable me to make use of, and to have made use of and will enable me... are paid, is to be added to said church."

"As for Abe, the black boy that father willed to me is not to come to any of my family, and as for Peggy, my wife, is to have no inheritance on any of my land nor any of her children, and my brother, John, and none of his family, nor none of Benjamin's, nor of Haymond's, nor Boseley, nor his heirs is to interfere in my lands and legacies. Greenwood is not to interfere in any of my concerns."

"Whereas I appoint Mary BASTABLE, of Weston, my heir and administrator, and to come and stay with me and to take care of me and of my things, and to keep my and my things in nice and genteel order for me, and to do all that is just and right for me and herself while we both live, and to get all done that she can for me that is just and right."

May 10, 1837 Daniel Conrad

His estate was settled October 8, 1853 in Braxton County, (W)VA.

Children of Daniel and Margaret (Shields) Conrad.

Jacob Conrad, a son of Benjamin and Barbara (Hedrick) Conrad, was born in Pendleton County Va (WV) in 1794 and died in Gilmer County WV September 23, 1872. He married Eunice Virginia mace in Harrison County VA (WV) September 2, 1815. According to an article in "Journal of the Braxton Historical Society" for June 1988, Eunice, a daughter of John and Molly Mace, was born in Pendleton County August 4, 1775 and died in Gilmer County March 2, 1895.

There is considerable doubt that Eunice was actually born in 1775. Her age is reported as 58 in the 1850 Gilmer County VA census, as 67 in the 1860 Gilmer listing and as 71 in the 1870 returns. Her youngest child was born in 1837. If the 1775 date were correct, Eunice would have been 62 when he was born. Possible, but not likely. She was probably born between 1790 and 1795 and was probably a niece of Eunice Mace who was born in Pendleton County in August 1775.

Currence B. Conrad, the son of John Conrad and Elizabeth (Currence) Conrad, was born in Braxton Co. Virginia January 29, 1812 and died in Gilmer County WV October 22, 1897. He married Ann Haymond March 27, 1833. Ann, a daughter of Wilson and Nancy (Byrne) Haymond was born December 7, 1813 and died in Gilmer County April 23, 1878.

This Currence B. Conrad was a Brigadier General in the Virginia Militia prior to the Civil war and represented Gilmer County in the Virginia Legislature. He voted against secession in that body and was strictly neutral during the Civil War. This report is borne out by the fact that he served as County Clerk for Gilmer County about thirty years, and members of the Confederacy were prohibited from holding public office.
